PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As President of the SDIPLA and on behalf of the Board, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2009-2010 term. We hope you and yours have had a great summer and are ready for another fabulous year of SDIPLA events. A heartfelt thank you goes out to Boris Zelkind, Immediate Past President, for his wonderful contributions and hard work and leadership provided to the SDIPLA this year past.

We will continue on with the SDIPLA's tradition of providing excellent speakers and events. This included our first dinner event held on August 27th featuring Circuit Judge Randall R. Rader of the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Forging ahead, we have a great year planned including events with discussion panels of General Counsels, Patent Reexaminations, District Judges, and Magistrate Judges; PTO Road Show; and of course, our Annual Holiday Party in December where we will announce the recipient of our IP Achievement Award.

While these events are great ways to earn your MCLE credits, we do encourage you to attend to just get out of your office to meet members in our IP community. Who knows, maybe you will even find a compatible workout partner, good friend, or whatever. Our hope is that you can also have fun at these events!

Finally, as always, we encourage participation in the SDIPLA. We have a myriad of committees to get involved including Amicus, Sponsorship, Events and Awards, and Mentorship. Currently, the SDIPLA could use help with the Sponsorship Committee. If you wish to get involved, please feel free to let us know.

From all of us on the Board, thank you for your support and participation in the SDIPLA. We look forward to a fabulous, interesting, and fun year. See you on October 8th.

INTERNET SIGHTINGS

By: Jim Hawes

This column highlights some of the more notable recent internet notices, newsletters and blogs dealing with IP prosecution issues. It may be a distillation by this publication's editor of the submitted IS column. If you would like to subscribe to the full column directly by email, write onejehawes@aol.com or go to the internet sightings website.

Hal Wegner's newsletter – a lot of great stuff – Contact: hwegner@foley.com to subscribe. The cited email is at the internet sightings website.

- The 8/3/09 newsletter discusses the European submarine patent problem.
- The 8/4/09 blog reports the Safoco CAFC decision construing the inter partes reexamination estoppel as being triggered by issuance of the reexamination certificate.
- The 8/5/09 email discusses some of Hal's top ten cases on appeal. See also his emails for 8/18, 8/22 (two), 8/23, 8/24, 8/26, 8/27, 8/29 and 8/31.
- The 8/7/09 blog discusses "cite bites" in the context of the Bilski cert petition. To avoid being bitten, check it out.
- Another 8/7/09 email reports that Judge Schall of the CAFC is taking senior status, opening a position for Pres. Obama to fill. Let's hope that it is with someone competent in patent law rather than in senate politics.
- A third 8/7/09 message reports the ex parte Brune BPAI decision holding a means claim indefinite due to there being no correlated means structure in the specification.
- The 8/14/09 email discusses the Hyatt v Doll CAFC decision affirming the District Court's exclusion of evidence suppressed while before the PTO. Patently-O also discusses this decision.
- The 8/31/09 blog reports the In re Bose case in which the Wave trademark was cancelled by the TTAB for fraud, but reversed by the CAFC for inadequate proof of fraud.

Patently-O – a blog written by Dennis Crouch – www.patentlyo.com.

- The 8/6/09 blog discusses worldwide patent trends.
- The 8/7/09 email reports that David Kappos has been confirmed by the Senate as the next Under Secretary of Commerce and Director of the PTO. It concludes: "Congratulations. Now get to work!"
- The 8/12/09 message reports that a copy of the unpublished Bilski patent application is available, and gives the web address for those interested.
- The 8/22/09 blog reports that the CAFC has granted an en banc hearing in the Ariad case to consider the scope of the written description requirement (35 USC 112).
- The 8/25/09 email states that the PTO has issued new guidelines for examiners to determine statutory subject matter issues.

Carl Oppedahl – mainly emails about PCT practice – carl@oppedahl.com

- The 8/5/09 posting consists of an email from isenbruck@1b-patent.de about why to choose EP as your ISA.
- Another 8/5/09 email, this time from Robert.Watson@Newburn.com, discusses the impact of the new PCT rules on using the EP as an ISA.
- On 8/5/09 a third opinion to Carl, this time from Alexander Schlee – alex@schleeip.com – gave more pros and cons about using the EP as an ISA.
- The 8/9/09 email is a reminder that, while some examiners prefer American word spellings, MPEP 608.01 expressly permits other spelling styles.
- The 8/10/09 message suggests that, to keep up with PCT developments, subscribe to pctupdates-request@uspto.gov.

AIPLA Direct – a sporadic electronic newsletter - <http://www.aipla.org>

- The Association has announced “the best value in IP” – its annual meeting in DC on 10/15-17. See its website for more information.
- The Association also announced a new, free online discussion series for members with Exec. Director Dickinson beginning on 9/10/09 at noon EST. Preregistration is required.

Cal Bar IP Section – Section news – Mitch.Wood@calbar.ca.gov

- The IP Section will present a free 1 hour teleseminar on 12/9/09 (rescheduled from 9/9/09) giving practice tips on patent application preparation and prosecution.
- This year’s IP Section Institute will be held 11/12-14 at Dana Point.

Copyright Office News – copynews@loc.gov

- A reminder – many Copyright Office fees changed August 1, 2009.
- WIPO – The international IP group in Geneva – www.wipo.int
- The ISA/EP search fee increases to $2378. on Oct. 1, 2009.

Other Stuff –

- Patentdocs.com periodically offers a calendar of coming IP events. You should subscribe for it has many more than what are here.
- The opt in or out deadline for the Google Books Settlement is now Sept. 4, 2009.
- For those considering a late stage (post pub) continuation filing, see Hal Wegner’s treatise at www.patenthawk.com/blog_docs/071019.
